

Let the Organ Thunder?? Liturgical Organ Playing from 1600 – 2000.

An illustrated talk by Philip Norman

Tuesday 17th September 2019
8.00pm

St Andrew's Church
Market Place, Enfield Town
EN2 6LS

Car park entrance in Silver Street EN1 3EG

Admission free
Retiring collection

A German organist from 1730 would feel pretty restricted playing for a modern, English service, as would a French organist from the same period. And, let it be said, an English organist of the early 19th century. This talk follows how playing requirements and expectations have evolved (or devolved?) across the centuries, and fetches suggestions from modern French and German practices.

This event is promoted by Enfield & District Organists' Association
www.edoa.org.uk